HELEN MALONEY NEWSLETTER AWARD

A newsletter is the vital link between the home and school. It will bring members into contact with all levels of PTA: local, district, state, and national. It reflects the character of your PTA. If it is appealing and exciting, people will want to be part of your PTA. It can give active members pride in their unit, invite new members into action, and attract more members to meetings. It should encourage parent and family engagement.

- ELIGIBILITY: Any unit or council in "Good Standing" in Suffolk Region
- CRITERIA:
- Appearance: neatness, layout, and use of illustration
 - Content: National, State and Region PTA information
Local unit and council news
Messages from PTA president and school administrator
Articles from PTA chairman and school personnel
News items which are informative and essential to parents, students and school personnel
A calendar of events
 - Mechanics: masthead, accuracy, spelling and grammar
 - Units and Councils may submit electronic newsletters or provide a one-page document, citing concrete examples, that attest to how the use of social media has been successful in promoting family engagement in their PTA
- TO ENTER: Send the completed entry form and TWO DIFFERENT issues published during the CURRENT school year or the ONE PAGE DOCUMENT to:
- Lori Fontana
8 Lake Avenue
Lake Ronkonkoma, NY 11779
